

The Wheat Foods Council Wants You!

The WFC is always looking for committed organizations with an interest in promoting wheat foods to become members.

Membership categories are:

VOTING

Board of Directors Voting members include private companies paying a minimum of $16,000 annually and grain producing states meeting a designated amount based on production. Benefits include voting rights, committee participation, the monthly Update newsletter, access to the members-only section of the website, copies of materials and minutes. News releases and materials may be personalized and materials purchased at cost.

ASSOCIATE

Wheat-related organizations or private companies can join for a minimum of $5,500 annually. Benefits include the monthly Update newsletter, minutes, access to the members-only section of the website and copies of materials. Although materials can be purchased at cost, they cannot be personalized. Associate members are not eligible to vote, serve as officers, or on committees.

NON-PROFIT

All nonprofit organizations with the exception of cooperatives, wheat check-off organizations and trade associations, may join for a minimum of $200 annually. Benefits include the monthly Update newsletter, access to the members-only section of the website and materials at cost, without personalization. At this level, members are not eligible to vote, serve as officers, or on committees.

SUPPORTER

Wheat-related organizations or private companies may join for a minimum of $500. Benefits include the monthly Update newsletter.
